

First Line Maintenance

---

The aim of this course is to provide learners with the ability and skills to perform first line maintenance on moulding machines and equipment to ensure operational efficiency. Learners will also learn how to use one-point lessons to share knowledge and information with their teams.

- ✓ PURPOSE AND BENEFITS OF FIRST LINE MAINTENANCE
- ✓ APPROACHES TO MAINTENANCE
- ✓ PERFORMING FIRST LINE MAINTENANCE
- ✓ CLEANING, HOUSEKEEPING AND INSPECTION
- ✓ IDENTIFY AND DEAL WITH PROBLEMS DURING CHECKS
- ✓ WALKABOUT MAINTENANCE
- ✓ INTRODUCTION TO ONE-POINT LESSON

At the end of this course learners will be able to:

- Understand the purpose and benefits of first line maintenance
- Understand the different approaches to maintenance
- Work safely when performing maintenance tasks
- Interpret walkabout and lubrication maintenance schedules
- Perform walkabout and lubrication maintenance tasks
- Identify safety issues and worn or damaged components on machines
- Understand the procedure to follow when reporting potential mechanical malfunctions
- Interpret a machine manual and develop a maintenance schedule
- Develop and present a one-point lesson
- Know the health and food safety requirements

Director: Carl Miller
Contact: 021-557 3896/082 920 5363
Email: carl@ascending.co.za Website: www.ascending.co.za